

Because most people are very rude when using a cell phone, I am against its use while in flight. When in an environment where you cannot remove yourself from an irritating cell phone user it is asking for trouble. I am afraid there could be conflicts between passengers, which should be avoided in a confined environment such as an airplane. Please do not allow cell phone use while in flight.